
FARMING ON THE EDGE

From our mountain vineyard overlooking the rugged Sonoma Coast, we produce limited quantities of single-vineyard, estate-grown, cool climate Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Pinotage, and Chenin Blanc. Less than a mile from the Pacific Ocean, our 51-acre, 33-block vineyard sits above the fog at elevations ranging from 1,200 to 1,700 feet in the Fort Ross-Seaview AVA.

Owners Lester and Linda Schwartz established Fort Ross Vineyard in 1994, with the first vintage produced in 2000. The vineyard is located near the historic Fort Ross, where the first grapevines in Sonoma County were planted in 1817. Nearly 200 years after those historic vines took root, Fort Ross Vineyard celebrated its own first vintage, continuing a legacy of winemaking on this unique coastal terroir.

2022 CHARDONNAY

VINTAGE: The 2022 growing season produced outstanding wines. A warmer-than-usual winter led to an early budbreak on February 18th, followed by average spring temperatures that spurred early vine growth. Unhoped for late spring rains during the flowering season impacted the berry set and reduced the 2022 potential crop size – thus producing a small but intensely flavored grape crop. However, the sunny days of summer above the Pacific coast allowed for ample fruit flavor development, while the chilly ocean winds maintained fresh acidity. Harvest officially began on August 19th, but yields were down considerably. Despite the lower quantities, 2022 is a memorable vintage, with excellent fruit quality and small, flavorful berries that possess exceptional concentration and complexity.

TASTING NOTES: A preview of the beautifully concentrated wine to come, the 2022 Fort Ross Chardonnay beams with a shimmering deep lemon hue that extends from core to rim in the glass. Aromas of ripe pear, lemon curd, toasted brioche, and a subtle burst of ripe stone fruit mingle with an edge of coastal salinity and notes of crushed stone. On the palate, this Chardonnay delivers unquestionable density and purity, with flavors of baked apple, grilled white peach, and honeycomb enhancing the mouthfeel. The bracing winds of the true Sonoma Coast and the chilled sea air preserve a noticeable vibrancy and freshness in this wine, adding layers of complexity and promising a long life in the bottle.
